

Discovery of Serres city

Take a selfie in each landmark that you are going to visit

- We start with the building where the Greek partner is headquartered.
- Next stop is the Byzantine Cathedral of the Saints Theodoron.
- Continue with the historical Ottoman monument of 16th century, the Zintzirli mosque.
- At Merarchias street there is a neoclassical building where the regional authority services housed.
- The Municipal distal theater of Serres “Stars” contributes to the increase in the community’s local culture.
- In the entrance of the Liberty square you can meet the Municipality building.
- A few meters far away the Mpezesteni building dominates which has unique historical and cultural value and it is one of the oldest. Turkish buildings which is located in the city center. This building operated as covered market and nowadays hosts the archaeological museum of Serres.
- From 1966 the statue of the Macedonian warrior Emmanouil Papas decorates the Liberty square.
- The impressive historical building of National bank, which represents the restart of local economy from 1927, located in the city center.
- In the north part of Serres, on the hill Koulas, located the ancient byzantine acropolis.

